

Features

37 Spotlight on Domotex

The highly anticipated and coveted Carpet Design Awards recognize annually the best of design at Domotex. Have a look at this year's breadth of winners.

42 Insider Profile

American Style: Capel at 100: The distinctly American brand celebrates 100 years with renewed focus on their signature braided rugs.

52 Spotlight on Atlanta

America's Magnificent Carpets Awards were presented during one of the rug industry's signature events at the Westin Peachtree Plaza. See who won.

56 Trend Spotting

Spring into Greenery: Green may conjure thoughts of spring, but these rugs prove the color keeps going all year long.

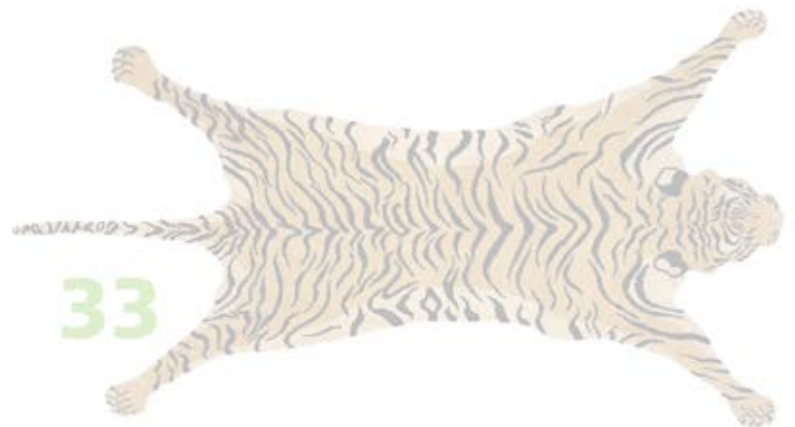

Departments

24 upClose By Peter Woodaman

33 RI Notebook

An attempt at taming the tiger in Tiger Rugs: They're Great! A brief look at the history of Tibetan Tiger Rugs from their first introduction to western consumers through the styles of today.

ON THE COVER

Laminous is the perfect carpet design to embellish a neutral room. This is our Spring 2017 cover, courtesy of Alan Pourvakil. With its twenty-one shades of silk and wool, it uses fresh candy colors that are meticulously woven with neutral hues, giving it the ability to stay versatile with your style changes. Laminous is 70-percent silk and 30-percent wool, hand-knotted in Nepal. For more information visit alanpourvakil.com.